ABOUT THE SESSION:

- Students in accounting often have a difficult time with some of the more abstract transactions...once the world of prepaid expenses and unearned revenues show up, students need a lot of small steps to make sure there is a comfort level and some logic which is evident...
- The use of Excel to determine the adjustments and reverses helps students to see what is happening and why...the use of color coded entries makes the jumble of numbers more easy to follow...
- Lots of files to share and participation in the examples of this often difficult topic...

ABOUT THE FACILITATOR:

James B. Currie, CTS Teacher, Western Canada High School - "30 years of experience teaching business courses in Saskatchewan and Alberta...curriculum developer with the Sask Ed...NHL Scout...passionate about teaching and learning, and finding better, exciting ways of delivering."
