ABOUT THE SESSION:

Are you teaching HSS 1010: Health Services Foundations? This webinar will provide insight into the rationale for the outcomes and some suggestions for resources to support class activities. Suggestions for how to link the relevance of these outcomes to career exploration and other CTS courses you are offering from Community Care Services, Health Care Services, and Human and Social Services will be discussed. Tracy Dalton is a learning leader with CBE-Learn who piloted the course and wrote an online resource for it. Mary-Lou Stacey was the lead curriculum manager during the course writing of HSS1010.

ABOUT THE FACILITATORS:

Mary-Lou Stacey is a CTS and science teacher with the School of Hope, a provincial online school within the East Central Catholic School Division. She has taught in online, blended and home education programs with the School of Hope for 12 years, including instruction in CTS, PE and Health, Biology 20 and 30, Music and grades 1 to 6 in all subject areas. Previous to her career in education, Mary-Lou was a Registered Nurse specializing in Pediatrics and Public Health. Mary-Lou was the lead curriculum manager for the new course development in Health and Human Services, Recreation Leadership, Health Care Services and Community Care Services Occupational Areas in CTS. During her role with Alberta Education, Mary-Lou worked extensively with the pilot schools and teachers in multiple jurisdictions assisting with pathway development, transitioning to the new programs of study, resource reviews, and implementation strategies for the new CTS Health pathway programs.

Tracy Dalton is currently a teacher at CBE-Learn, the Calgary Board of Education online school. She has taught at 6 different high schools in Calgary, in English, Physical Education, CALM, Sports Medicine, Work Experience and Legal Studies. She is currently working on two content development projects, including developing 5 online modules for the Health Pathway Sports Medicine specialization.
