ABOUT THE SESSION:

Do you need interesting, relevant courses for students to help them complete their diploma requirements? Join Tracy and Mary-Lou for an overview of choices to consider in CTS.

ABOUT THE FACILITATORS:

Mary-Lou Stacey is a CTS and science teacher with the School of Hope, a provincial online school within the East Central Catholic School Division. She has taught in online, blended and home education programs with the School of Hope for 12 years, including instruction in CTS, PE and Health, Biology 20 and 30, Music and grades 1 to 6 in all subject areas. Previous to her career in education, Mary-Lou was a Registered Nurse specializing in Pediatrics and Public Health. Mary-Lou was the lead curriculum manager for the new course development in Health and Human Services, Recreation Leadership, Health Care Services and Community Care Services Occupational Areas in CTS. During her role with Alberta Education, Mary-Lou worked extensively with the pilot schools and teachers in multiple jurisdictions assisting with pathway development, transitioning to the new programs of study, resource reviews, and implementation strategies for the new CTS Health pathway programs.

Tracy Dalton is currently a teacher at CBE-Learn, the Calgary Board of Education online school. She has taught at 6 different high schools in Calgary, in English, Physical Education, CALM, Sports Medicine, Work Experience and Legal Studies. She is currently working on two content development projects, including developing 5 online modules for the Health Pathway Sports Medicine specialization.
