ABOUT THE SESSION:

Are you wondering what's happened to the old Community Health Strand? The new CTS Program of Studies has four new Occupational Areas with over 80 courses that were developed and piloted to replace the Community Health Strand in CTS. Mary-Lou was the lead curriculum manager for the development of courses in Community Care Services, Health and Human Services, Health Care Services and Recreation Leadership. She will give an overview of the courses, highlight the major changes in the curriculum, discuss the new focus on wellness, and offer suggestions for course selection and pathway development for your program.

ABOUT THE FACILITATOR:

Mary-Lou Stacey is a CTS and science teacher with the School of Hope, a provincial online school within the East Central Catholic School Division. She has taught in online, blended and home education programs with the School of Hope for 12 years, including instruction in CTS, PE and Health, Biology 20 and 30, Music and grades 1 to 6 in all subject areas. Previous to her career in education, Mary-Lou was a Registered Nurse specializing in Pediatrics and Public Health. Mary-Lou was the lead curriculum manager for the new course development in Health and Human Services, Recreation Leadership, Health Care Services and Community Care Services Occupational Areas in CTS. During her role with Alberta Education, Mary-Lou worked extensively with the pilot schools and teachers in multiple jurisdictions assisting with pathway development, transitioning to the new programs of study, resource reviews, and implementation strategies for the new CTS Health pathway programs.
