ABOUT THE SESSION:

Health Pathways courses related to Recreation Leadership, Mentoring, and Community Care offer exciting opportunities for off-campus learning for high school students. Much of this off-campus learning can support the development of Wrap Around initiatives in schools and the community. Phyllis and Mary-Lou will highlight some of these opportunities and answer questions.

ABOUT THE FACILITATORS:

Mary-Lou Stacey is a CTS and science teacher with the School of Hope, a provincial online school within the East Central Catholic School Division. She has taught in online, blended and home education programs with the School of Hope for 12 years, including instruction in CTS, PE and Health, Biology 20 and 30, Music and grades 1 to 6 in all subject areas. Previous to her career in education, Mary-Lou was a Registered Nurse specializing in Pediatrics and Public Health. Mary-Lou was the lead curriculum manager for the new course development in Health and Human Services, Recreation Leadership, Health Care Services and Community Care Services Occupational Areas in CTS. During her role with Alberta Education, Mary-Lou worked extensively with the pilot schools and teachers in multiple jurisdictions assisting with pathway development, transitioning to the new programs of study, resource reviews, and implementation strategies for the new CTS Health pathway programs.

Phyllis Kornder is a retired educator and counselor. As a former teacher/counselor at John Paul II High School she has taught CALM, English, and Religion. Currently she is a counsellor for Elk Island Catholic Schools at St. Theresa Catholic School (K-9) in Sherwood Park. Phyllis has also been involved with the creation and implementation of the new HRH Mentoring courses in CTS and continues to work on the DL version of the courses.
