Time: 9:00 am to 3:30 pm	Address: 4210 59 St., Red Deer
Cost: $30	Lunch: Lunch is Included

This session is made possible through a grant from Alberta Education

Who should attend?

Grades 1-6 teachers, Teacher Leaders

About the session:

During this session you will explore how SMARTboards and other technology can be used to teach the Traits of Writing. Each trait will be explored using technology based learning activities that you can use in your classroom. The presenter will also share how technology can be used to guide the assessment and revision process used in the trait model.

About the facilitators:

Siobhan Murphy is currently on secondment to Edmonton Regional Learning Consortium. Prior to this, she worked as Greater St. Albert Catholic Regional Division's AISI Lead Teacher during Cycle 3. She has also taught at the elementary and junior high levels and has used the Traits of Writing model in her classroom. Siobhan completed her Master's degree in education at the University of Alberta focusing her research project on assessment for learning best practices, in particular how rubrics can improve student writing.
