About the session:

Do you sometimes wonder how to motivate and engage your FSL students? What should you do to make them love being in your French class? This session will review some exciting activities that you will want to use in your French class immediately. As a result, your students' oral French will greatly improve and their enthusiasm to want to learn French will increase. Be prepared to also share some of the activities that you use in your own French classroom. The more ideas, the better!
