Action on Inclusion: A Dialogue

with Wanda Christensen, Jodi Goodrick & Sally Deck

Date: Friday, September 9, 2011	Venue: Holiday Inn 67 St.
Time: 9:00 am to 3:30 pm	Address: 6500 67 St. Red Deer
Cost: $50	Lunch: Lunch is Included

This session is made possible through a grant from Alberta Education

Who should attend?

Inclusive Education teachers

About the session:

This workshop will cover the provincial direction of "Action on Inclusion" outlining the 12 Strategic Directions from the "Setting the Direction" recommendations. An overview will be presented demonstrating approaches school districts are taking in moving towards a more inclusive system of education. Participants will have the opportunity for collaboration and the sharing of best practices. As well, Red Deer Public will provide an overview of the new Inclusive Education Planning Tool and present their work in the piloting of this tool. There are plans to have this workshop as the first in a series, which will continue to address topics pertinent to the implementation of Action on Inclusion.

About the facilitators:

Wanda Christensen is the Associate Superintendent Student Services, Chinook's Edge School Division District, Jodi Goodrick is the Assistant Superintendent Intervention Services, Red Deer Public School and Sally Deck is the Director of Special Education, Red Deer Catholic Regional Schools. Together these three educators bring over seventy-five years of experience as teachers, school counselors, school based administrators, and senior administrators in Alberta, Saskatchewan as well as overseas. Their experiences have included practice and programming within both congregated and inclusive education systems.
