Time: 4:30 - 5:30 pm (Mountain Standard Time)

Please log on at 4:00 pm to do your mic and speaker test!!**

About the session:

I'm teaching Knowledge and Employability Occupational Programs of Study! Now what do I do? Planning effectively and efficiently for Knowledge and Employability courses is crucial for student success. Join colleagues to investigate and share best practice strategies for proactive, flexible and student-centered teaching of KE occupational courses/KE occupation courses combined with CTS programs of study.

About the facilitator:

Debbie MacFadyen is a CTS Specialist within CBE with over 25 years experience as a teacher, administrator, secondee to Alberta Education as a Knowledge and Employability Resource Manager and Career and Technology Studies Resource Manager, published author, and PD facilitator. Debbie's academic credentials include a BSc., BEd. and MEd. Having acquired a master's degree in Teaching, Learning and Supervision has prepared Deb for the responsibility of the acquisition and/or development of CTS and KE curriculum and resource materials, the KE online guide, the Studio and a number of safety resources. She has taught both academic and occupations and has been involved as a writer of the former IOP curriculum and resources. Deb has worked with the IOP/ KE learners and has mentored teachers in effective pedagogical practice.
