K - 12 Social Studies Teachers

ABOUT THE SESSION:

If you're new to teaching the Social Studies curriculum, the first questions you might ask are: where is the curriculum, and secondly what is this Inquiry focus I have heard about?

Part 1 of this two part Inquiry Learning webinar series will introduce you to the Inquiry process and discuss the idea that this curriculum is designed to be an Inquiry Based curriculum. "What is Inquiry Based Learning," and, "How will it impact my teaching and planning?" are the two questions we will address.

ABOUT THE FACILITATOR:

Don Anderson: For all of Don's 30+ years as an educator in Alberta, he has used various forms of Inquiry based learning, both as a Physical Education teacher and a classroom teacher of the Humanities and Sciences. With the development of the new Social Studies curriculum he recognized the need for teachers to use PD opportunities to develop an understanding of the new curriculum and Inquiry Based Learning in particular. He has become the Social Studies facilitator for Clearview Public Schools and worked with Clearview teachers to provide PD opportunities for the development of the Inquiry Based Learning processes and lessons. Don has conducted Social Studies Inquiry Based Learning workshops throughout Alberta focusing on the basics of Inquiry Based Learning, the Alberta curriculum and developing Inquiry Based Classrooms.
