Social Networking in the Classroom with John Ferguson

Tuesday, March 15, 2011
4:30 pm to 5:30 pm Mountain Time Zone
Please log on at 4:00 pm to do your mic & speaker test!
$20

WHO SHOULD ATTEND:

K-12 teachers

ABOUT THE SESSION:

Social networking is not just Facebook. Learn about some easy to use tools and strategies to build collaboration among your students.

ABOUT THE FACILITATOR:

John Ferguson has taught at all grade levels and in several disciplines and is now at Delburne Centralized School. His extensive experience with technology has enabled him to seamlessly fuse traditional research-based strategies for teaching and Web 2.0 applications to create exciting and relevant learning opportunities. Ferguson states that "Building openness, collaboration, and engagement while meeting the curricular technology learning outcomes is an imperative in preparing children for real world tasks."
